12. Market Volatility; Market Orders; Limit Orders; and Queued Orders.

The Customer understands that, whether the Customer places a market, the Customer will receive the price at which the Customer order is executed in the marketplace, subject to any clarification stated below. Particularly during periods of high volume, illiquidity, fast movement or volatility in the marketplace, the execution price received may differ from the quote provided on entry of an order, and the Customer may receive partial executions of an order at different prices. The Customer understands that the Broker is not liable for any price fluctuations. The Customer also understands that price quotes generally are for only a small number of shares as specified by the marketplace, and larger orders are relatively more likely to receive executions at prices that vary from the quotes or in multiple lots at different prices. Further, all orders are marked “Not Held,” which gives the Clearing Broker and/or its agents the time and price discretion to execute the order without being held to the current quote.

The Customer understands that securities may open for trading at prices substantially higher or lower than the previous closing price or the anticipated price. If the Customer places a market order, the Customer agrees to pay or receive the prevailing market price at the time the Customer market order is executed. The Customer understands that the price the Customer pays may be significantly higher or lower than anticipated at the time the Customer placed the order. The Platform may contain further information regarding order types and limitations, which the Customer agrees to read and understand before placing such orders.

As a customer of the Broker, the Customer understands scenarios may arise where a Customer is unable to trade, a trade they have placed is not able to be executed, and/ or a position in which they have affected but not yet paid for must be sold at the Broker’s discretion. These include, after the market has closed for the day, there is insufficient funds in the Financial Institution Account, the Financial Institution Account is closed, or when Customer has reached the limit of permissible orders prescribed by the Pattern Day Trading Rule. Customer understands the Broker does not permit Pattern Day Trading. For further details please see Section 15(B)(3). The Customer may have the ability to place a queue order request in the system to be executed when available (“Queued Order”). If able, the Customer understands that the Customer Queued Order request is prioritized based on the order in which it is received by the Broker, and that the Queued Order requests are sent out for execution shortly after the market opens on the next permissible day of trading for the Customer. The Customer further understands that each Queued Order request is sent out per customer and per security in a similar manner as to the Broker’s market orders (described above), and that they are not aggregated.

13. Extended Trading Hours.

Regular trading hours (“RTH”) generally means trading between 9:30 a.m. and 4:00 p.m. Eastern Standard Time (“EST”). The Broker does not offer Extended Trading Hours (“ETH”) or permit order submitted after RTH.

14. Restrictions on Trading, Deposits and Use of Services.

The Customer understands that the Broker may, in its discretion, prohibit or restrict the trading of securities, or the substitution of securities, in any of the Customer Accounts. The Customer understands that the Broker may execute all orders by the Customer on any exchange or market, unless the Customer specifically instructs the Broker to the contrary. In the event of a breach or default by the Customer under this Customer Agreement, the Broker shall have all rights and remedies available to a secured creditor under all applicable laws and in addition to the rights and remedies provided herein. The Customer understands that the Broker may at any time, at its sole discretion and without prior notice to the Customer: (i) prohibit or restrict the Customer's ability to trade, (ii) refuse to accept any of the Customer's transactions, (iii) refuse to execute any of the Customer transactions, or (iv) terminate the Customer Account. Subject to the restrictions on Customer's access to the Customer Account as described in Section 4(K) above, the closing of the Customer Account will not affect the rights or obligations of either party incurred prior to the date the Customer Account is closed.

Further, the Broker will not tolerate any foul or abusive language, physical violence, threatening behavior, or other inappropriate conduct directed toward the Broker, its Affiliates' officers, employees, contractors or customers. If the Customer engages in any such behavior, as determined by the Broker in its sole discretion, the Customer agrees that the Broker is authorized to: (i) liquidate any securities, instruments or other property in the Customer Account, (ii) transmit any sale proceeds arising from liquidations, and any resting cash balance, to the Customer's Financial Institution Account, and (iii) close the Customer Account. The Broker will not be responsible for any Losses caused by the liquidation of securities, instruments or other property pursuant to this paragraph, including any tax liabilities.

15. Platform Trading

A. Platform.

- 1) Platform Offering. Customer understands that Broker offers securities solely through the Platform, which Customer can access solely through their Financial Institution. Closing a Financial Institution Account will restrict Customer's access to the Customer Account and will limit trading capabilities to 'sell only'. The Platform is operated by InvestiFi and includes Broker's securities offering as well as AdvisiFi's investment advisory offering. Broker's role on the Platform is limited to introducing brokerage services and specifically, receiving instructions from AdvisiFi and introducing Customer's Customer Account and all transactions to RQD. Customer understands that their relationships with Broker and AdvisiFi are controlled by separate documentation governing such relationships (collectively, the "Platform Documentation"). For the avoidance of doubt, this Customer Agreement solely governs the relationship between Customer and Broker, and not the Customer's relationship with AdvisiFi or any other Affiliate.

Customer understands and acknowledges that Customer's securities and cash held with the Clearing Broker are SIPC protected.

CUSTOMER UNDERSTANDS AND AGREES THAT WHEN IT OPENS AN ACCOUNT AND ACCESSES THE PLATFORM, THAT CUSTOMER WILL INTERACT WITH EACH OF THE RELEVANT ENTITIES DEPENDING ON CUSTOMER'S ACTIVITIES ON THE PLATFORM. CUSTOMER FURTHER ACKNOWLEDGES AND UNDERSTANDS THAT CLEAR, EXPLICIT AND REPEATED DISCLOSURES WILL BE PROVIDED TO CUSTOMER AT ALL RELEVANT TIMES

DURING CUSTOMER ACCESS OF THE PLATFORM. IN THE EVENT THAT CUSTOMER HAS ANY QUESTIONS REGARDING CUSTOMER'S RELATIONSHIP WITH BROKER, OR ANY OF THE ENTITIES, OR QUESTIONS REGARDING ANY OF THE INFORMATION CONTAINED IN THIS CUSTOMER AGREEMENT, CUSTOMER WILL IMMEDIATELY CONTACT BROKER AT SUPPORT@CDSECURITIES.CO PRIOR TO ENGAGING IN ANY TRADING AND/OR RELATED ACTIVITY ON THE PLATFORM.

- 2) Funding. Customer understands that each trade will be funded using the Customer's Financial Institution Account. Customer agrees that, by initiating or directing a purchase or sale order, Customer is authorizing their Financial Institution, or other vendor that AdvisiFi may engage from time to time, to either (i) make use of the Automated Clearing House ("ACH") payment system to facilitate, or (ii) facilitate by wire, the transfer of money to the Clearing Broker, for purchases, and to receive money from the Clearing Broker and subsequently allocate such monies to the Customer's Financial Institution Account, for sales and other free credit balances.

B. Customer Account.

- 1) Self-Directed Investing; No Recommendations. Customer's Account is self-directed, meaning that Broker does not provide recommendations and Broker is not responsible for the suitability of any investment made in the Customer's Account. Customer is solely responsible for any and all orders placed within Customer Account. Customer acknowledges that, with respect to Broker, all orders placed within Customer Account are unsolicited and based upon Customer's own investment decisions and evaluation of the benefits and risks associated with trading in Customer Account.

CUSTOMER ACKNOWLEDGES THAT BROKER DOES NOT: (i) PROVIDE ANY INVESTMENT ADVICE IN CONNECTION WITH THE CUSTOMER ACCOUNT; (ii) RECOMMEND ANY SECURITY, TRANSACTION, STRATEGY, OR ORDER; (iii) SOLICIT ORDERS; (iv) ACT AS A MARKET MAKER IN ANY SECURITY; OR, (v) MAKE DISCRETIONARY TRADES ON CUSTOMER'S BEHALF.

- 2) Instant Deposit Account; No Extension of Credit. All Customer Accounts will be 'zero balance' accounts, meaning that Customer Accounts held with RQD will not hold an overnight cash balance. All funds held with RQD will be returned, daily, to the Customer's Financial Institution Account. Customers may have access to unsettled funds, subject to certain restrictions and limitations. All securities, assets and other property held in the Customer Account are subject to a lien in favor of Broker for the payment of all trades, debit balances or other obligations, as applicable, arising in connection with the Customer Account. Customer may request to close the Customer Account at any time by contacting support@cdsecurities.co.

Customer further understands that no margin or other credit will be granted to the Customer Account unless and until approved by Broker.

- 3) Prohibition of Pattern Day Trading. Customer may not engage in “pattern day trading.” Pattern day trading occurs when Customer initiates four or more day trades within five business days, provided the number of day trades are more than six percent of Customer’s total number of trades for that same five day period. A day trade occurs when Customer buys and sells, or sells and buys, the same security on the same day. Engaging in pattern day trading may result in increased Customer Account requirements, suspension, deactivation, or closure of the Customer Account. Broker may institute trade restrictions to prevent pattern day trading at any time without notice to Customer. Specifically, Broker will monitor Customer Account trading activity and will provide Customer with explicit notice to the extent that Customer engages in three-day trades within a five-business day period. A day trade constitutes a buy and a sell of the same security in the same day in a margin account. Customer will be alerted that if they place the 4th buy or sell of a security, they will trigger a day trading call and be required to maintain $25,000 in equity in the account. An equity maintenance margin call will be issued for the required $25,000 of equity in the account if the Customer does not have $25,000 in equity in the account restricted from day trading in a margin account. .
- 4) Account Closing. Customers may close their Customer Account at any time. If a Customer chooses to close their Customer Account, the Customer will be prompted to either transfer securities positions to another broker (in accordance with Section 15(B)(5)), or liquidate the positions back to the Customer’s Financial Institution Account. Further, if Customer has fractional shares, the Customer MUST liquidate those shares prior to transfer their positions to another broker, as fractional shares are ineligible for transfer between broker-dealers. See Section 16 below.
- 5) Account Transfer. Customer may request an in-kind transfer of such securities or investment products in the Customer Account to an account established by the Customer with another broker-dealer (“Receiving Firm”) by initiating an Automated Customer Account Transfer Service (“ACATS”) request with your Receiving Firm. Broker reserves the right to reject the transfer request before or after initiation and you will be notified of any such rejection via email or by phone.

Customer understands and agrees that the Customer Account may be locked during the pendency of the transfer. Broker will not be liable for any Losses the Customer may sustain in connection with and during the course of the transfer process and/or between the time that Broker decides to reject a transfer request and Customer’s receipt of notice of the rejection. It is Customer’s responsibility to ensure that transfer instructions are accurate before submitting a transfer request. A transfer request generally cannot be amended or canceled after Broker receives the transfer request. Broker may in its discretion attempt to abide by a subsequent Customer request for a change to a transfer request, but it is not obligated to do so. Broker will not be liable for any Losses that arise out of or relate to an attempt to amend or cancel a transfer request, and Customer agrees to indemnify and hold Broker harmless from any Losses arising out of or relating to an attempt to amend or cancel a transfer request, including a decline in the market value of the assets in the Customer Account.

Certain assets may not be transferable via ACATS within Broker's system. This includes cash as well as securities that are liquidated at Broker's request. Certain Receiving Firms are ineligible to receive Customer Account transfers via ACATS due to technical limitations. In the event an in-kind transfer is unavailable based on the type of product or the Customer's Receiving Firm, Customer assets may need to be liquidated and transferred out via an ACH withdrawal to the Financial Institution Account.

16. Fractional Shares.

The Broker may allow for the purchase of fractional shares of certain securities ("Fractional Shares") in the Customer Account. Trading Fractional Shares presents unique risks and has certain limitations that Customer should understand before engaging in such activity.

Customer acknowledges and understands that the Broker rounds all holdings of Fractional Shares to the fifth decimal place, the value of Fractional Shares to the nearest cent, and any dividends paid on Fractional Shares to the nearest cent. Customer also understands that the Broker will not accept buy orders of fractional shares amounts under $1.00. Customer further understands that they may receive dividends in an amount less than the pro rata ownership would otherwise entitle a Customer to receive, and in certain instances, no dividend at all, subject to the Broker's rounding methodology.

Customer understands that the Broker only accepts market orders and limit orders for Fractional Share orders at this time. Customer also understands that Fractional Shares in a Customer Account (i) are unmarketable, and illiquid outside the Customer Account, (ii) are not transferrable in-kind, and (iii) may only be liquidated and the proceeds transferred out via a wire transfer. Customer acknowledges that, subject to applicable requirements, the Broker may report holdings and transactions in the Account in terms of either U.S. dollars, shares, or both. Customer understands that not all securities available for trading on the Platform are available for Fractional Shares trading. Customer further understands that the Clearing Broker may act in either an agency or principal capacity when executing Fractional Share orders.

FRACTIONAL SHARE INTERESTS IN NMS SECURITIES GENERALLY HAVE DIFFERENT RIGHTS FROM FULL SHARE INTERESTS, OF THE SAME NMS SECURITY. CUSTOMER AGREES TO REVIEW AND UNDERSTAND THE FOLLOWING INFORMATION REGARDING FRACTIONAL SHARE INTERESTS.

Fractional Share positions cannot be transferred or certificated. ACATS does not support fractional share positions. If Customer wants to transfer an Account or specific share positions within an Account to another broker, Customer must sell Fractional Share positions and transfer the cash proceeds.

Customer hereby directs the Clearing Broker not to vote or take any discretionary or voluntary action with respect to any Fractional Share position. Furthermore, Customer acknowledges that Customer cannot vote or take any discretionary or voluntary action with respect to any Fractional Share position. Accordingly, while the Broker may notify the Customer of issuer meetings, the Broker will not solicit proxies in connection with Fractional Share positions, and Customer cannot vote proxies for Fractional Share positions. Fractional Share shareholders will not be able to provide instructions in connection with voluntary corporate actions (e.g., tenders), except for optional dividends; and the Broker will not vote proxies for any Fractional Share it holds as principal and will not affirmatively participate in any voluntary corporate actions.

In the case of a dividend paid on, or a redemption of, an NMS Security, the dividend or redemption proceeds will be passed along to the Customer Account in proportion to Customer's ownership interest, inclusive of Fractional Share interests. For mandatory reorganizations, such as mergers and acquisitions, or other involuntary corporate actions, such as stock splits or stock dividends, typically the Broker will distribute interests in proportion to the Customer's ownership interest, inclusive of Fractional Share interests. Because of the unpredictable nature of corporate actions, there may be situations that arise that are not described. Generally, these situations will be handled in accordance with the above concepts applicable to dividends and reorganizations. Interests will be divided and distributed where possible in proportion to Customer's ownership interest. However, the foregoing notwithstanding, these situations are in all cases subject to the terms contained in the materials prepared by the issuer describing the corporate action, as well as the Broker's applicable policies and procedures, which may result in a different outcome from what is described above.

17. Exchange Traded Funds.

Customer understands that they should consider the investment objectives and unique risk profile of Exchange Traded Funds ("ETFs") carefully before investing, and that ETFs are subject to risks similar to those of other diversified portfolios. Customer should review the ETF's prospectus and other disclosure documents prior to investing, which are generally available on the ETFs' website as well as on the SEC's Electronic Data Gathering, Analysis, and Retrieval (EDGAR) system. Further, Customer understands that leveraged and inverse ETFs may not be suitable for all investors and may increase exposure to volatility through the use of leverage, short sales of securities, derivatives, and other complex investment strategies, and that although ETFs are designed to provide investment results that generally correspond to the performance of their respective underlying indices, they may not be able to exactly replicate the performance of the indices because of expenses and other factors. Customer further understands that ETFs are required to distribute portfolio gains to shareholders at year end, which may be generated by portfolio rebalancing or the need to meet diversification requirements, and that ETF trading will also generate tax consequences. Customer understands that Customer can obtain prospectuses from issuers or their third-party agents who distribute and make prospectuses available for review. Additional regulatory guidance on ETFs can be found here.

18. Waiver; Limitation of Liability; Indemnification.

The Customer agrees that the Customer's use of the Platform or any other service provided by the Broker or its Affiliates is at the Customer's sole risk. The Broker's service (including the Platform, the provision of Market Data, information, content, or any other information provided by the Broker, any of its Affiliates, or any third-party content provider or market data provider) is provided on an “as is,” “as available” basis without warranties of any kind, either express or implied, statutory (including without limitation, timeliness, truthfulness, sequence, completeness, accuracy, freedom from interruption), implied warranties arising from trade usage, course of dealing, course of performance, or the implied warranties of merchantability or fitness for a particular purpose or application, other than those warranties which are implied by and incapable of exclusion, restriction or modification under the laws applicable to this Customer Agreement.

THE CUSTOMER UNDERSTANDS AND AGREES THAT THE BROKER, ITS AFFILIATES, ITS RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, AND EMPLOYEES, AND THE PROVIDERS WILL NOT BE LIABLE TO THE CUSTOMER OR TO THIRD PARTIES UNDER ANY CIRCUMSTANCES, OR HAVE ANY RESPONSIBILITY WHATSOEVER, FOR ANY SPECIAL, INDIRECT, INCIDENTAL, PUNITIVE OR CONSEQUENTIAL DAMAGES (INCLUDING LOST PROFITS, TRADING LOSSES, AND DAMAGES) THAT THE CUSTOMER MAY INCUR IN CONNECTION WITH THE CUSTOMER’S USE OF THE SERVICE PROVIDED BY THE BROKER UNDER THIS CUSTOMER AGREEMENT, INCLUDING THE CUSTOMER’S USE OF THE PLATFORM, THE MARKET DATA, THE INFORMATION, OR THE CONTENT. THE BROKER, THE BROKER AFFILIATES, AND THE BROKER’S RESPECTIVE OFFICERS, DIRECTORS, AND EMPLOYEES SHALL NOT BE LIABLE BY REASON OF DELAYS OR INTERRUPTIONS OF THE SERVICE OR TRANSMISSIONS, OR FAILURES OF PERFORMANCE OF THE BROKER’S SYSTEM, REGARDLESS OF CAUSE, INCLUDING THOSE CAUSED BY GOVERNMENTAL OR REGULATORY ACTION, THE ACTION OF ANY EXCHANGE OR OTHER SELF REGULATORY ORGANIZATION, OR THOSE CAUSED BY SOFTWARE OR HARDWARE MALFUNCTIONS.

Except as otherwise provided by law, the Broker or any of its affiliates or respective partners, officers, directors, employees or agents (collectively, “Indemnified Parties”) shall not be liable for any expenses, losses, costs, damages, liabilities, demands, debts, obligations, penalties, charges, claims, causes of action, penalties, fines and taxes of any kind or nature (including legal expenses and attorneys’ fees) (whether known or unknown, absolute or contingent, liquidated or unliquidated, direct or indirect, due or to become due, accrued or not accrued, asserted or unasserted, related or not related to a third party claim, or otherwise) (collectively, “Losses”) by or with respect to any matters pertaining to the Customer Account, except to the extent that such Losses are actual Losses and are determined by a court of competent jurisdiction or an arbitration panel in a final non-appealable judgment or order to have resulted solely from the Broker’s or any of its affiliates’ gross negligence or intentional misconduct. In addition, the Customer agrees that the Indemnified Parties shall have no liability for, and the Customer agrees to indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Indemnified Parties from all Losses that result from: (i) any noncompliance by the Customer with any of the terms and conditions of this Customer Agreement; (ii) any third-party actions related to the Customer’s receipt and use of any Information, Market Data, content, market analysis, other third-party content, or other such information obtained on the Platform, whether authorized or unauthorized under this Customer Agreement; (iii) any third-party actions related to the Customer’s use of the Platform; (iv) the Customer or the Customer’s agent’s misrepresentation or alleged misrepresentation, or act or omission; (v) Indemnified Parties following the Customer or the Customer’s agent’s directions or instructions, or failing to follow the Customer or the Customer’s agent’s unlawful or unreasonable directions or instructions; (vi) any activities or services of the Indemnified Parties in connection with the Customer Account (including any technology services, reporting, trading, research or capital introduction services); or (vii) the failure by any person not controlled by the Indemnified Parties and their affiliates to perform any obligations to the Customer. Further, if the Customer authorizes or allows third parties to gain access to the Broker's services, including the Customer's Accounts, the Customer will indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Broker, its Affiliates, and the Broker and its Affiliates' respective officers and employees against any Losses arising out of claims or suits by such third parties based upon or relating to such access and use. The Broker does not warrant against loss of use or any direct, indirect or consequential damages or Losses to the Customer caused by the Customer's assent, expressed or implied, to a third party, including any joint owner, accessing the Customer Account or information, including access provided through any other third-party systems or sites.

The Customer also agrees that Indemnified Parties will have no responsibility or liability to the Customer in connection with the performance or non-performance by any exchange, clearing organization, market data provider, or other third party (including other broker-dealers and clearing firms, and banks) or any of their respective agents or affiliates, of its or their obligations relative to any securities. The Customer agrees that Indemnified Parties will have no liability, to the Customer or to third parties, or responsibility whatsoever for: (i) any Losses resulting from a cause over which Indemnified Parties do not have direct control, including the failure of mechanical equipment, unauthorized access, theft, operator errors, government restrictions, force majeure (as defined in this Customer Agreement), market data availability or quality, exchange rulings or suspension of trading; and (ii) any special, indirect, incidental, consequential, punitive or exemplary damages (including lost profits, trading losses and damages) that the Customer may incur in connection with the Customer's use of the Platform and other services provided by Indemnified Parties under this Customer Agreement. Further, if the Customer authorizes or allows third parties to gain access to the Broker's services, including the Customer Accounts, the Customer will indemnify, defend and hold harmless the Broker, its affiliates, and the Broker and its affiliates' respective officers and employees against any Losses arising out of claims or suits by such third parties based upon or relating to such access and use.

19. Effect of Attachment or Sequestration of Accounts.

The Broker shall not be liable for refusing to obey any orders given by or for the Customer with respect to any of the Customer Accounts that has or have been subject to an attachment or sequestration in any legal proceeding against the Customer, and the Broker shall be under no obligation to contest the validity of any such attachment or sequestration.

20. Event of Death.

It is agreed that in the event of the Customer's death or the death of one of the joint Account holders, the representative of the Customer's estate or the survivor or survivors shall immediately give the Broker written notice thereof, and the Broker may, before or after receiving such notice, take such action, require such papers and inheritance or estate tax waivers, retain such portion of, or restrict transactions in the Account as the Broker may deem advisable to protect the Broker against any tax, liability, penalty or loss under any present or future laws or otherwise. Notwithstanding the above and unless prohibited by applicable law, in the event of the Customer's death or the death of one of the joint Account holders, all open orders shall be canceled, but the Broker shall not be responsible for any action taken on such orders prior to the actual receipt of notice of death. Further, in the Broker's discretion it may close out any or all of the Customer Accounts without awaiting the appointment of a personal representative for the Customer's estate and without demand upon or notice to any such personal representative. The estate of any of the Customer Account holders who have died shall be liable and each survivor shall continue to be liable, jointly and severally, to the Broker for any net debit balance or loss in the Customer Account in any way resulting from the completion of transactions initiated prior to the receipt by the Broker of the written notice of the death of the decedent or incurred in the liquidation of the Customer Account or the adjustment of the interests of the respective parties, and for all other obligations pursuant to this Customer Agreement. Broker may, in its sole discretion, apply any proceeds received from the liquidation of the Customer Account to any net debit balance or loss in the Customer Account, or otherwise to any funds owed by Customer to Broker. Such notice shall not affect the Broker's rights under this Customer Agreement to take any action that the Broker could have taken if the Customer had not died.

21. Tax Reporting; Tax Withholding.

The proceeds of sale transactions and dividends paid will be reported to the Internal Revenue Service ("IRS") in accordance with applicable law. Access to the Platform is limited to U.S. persons. Under penalties of perjury, the Customer certifies that the taxpayer identification number provided or that will be provided to the Broker (including any taxpayer identification number on any Form W-9 that the Customer has provided or will provide to the Broker) is the Customer's correct taxpayer identification number. The Customer certifies that the Customer is not subject to backup withholding and is a United States Person (including a U.S. resident alien) as such term is defined in section 7701(a)(30) of the Internal Revenue Code of 1986, as amended ("U.S. Person"). If a correct Taxpayer Identification Number is not provided to the Broker, the Customer understands the Customer may be subject to backup withholding tax at the appropriate rate on all dividends, interest and gross proceeds paid to the Customer. Backup withholding taxes are sent to the IRS and cannot be refunded by the Broker. The Customer further understands that if the Customer waives tax withholding and fails to pay sufficient estimated taxes to the IRS, the Customer may be subject to tax penalties.

22. Equity Orders and Payment For Order Flow.

SEC rules require all registered broker-dealers to disclose their policies regarding any "payment for order flow" arrangement in connection with the routing of customer orders. "Payment for order flow" includes, among other things, any monetary payment, service, property, or other benefit that results in remuneration, compensation, or consideration to a broker-dealer from any broker-dealer in return for directing orders. The Customer understands that the Broker may transmit customer orders for execution to various exchanges or market centers based on a number of factors. These include: size of order, trading characteristics of the security, favorable execution prices (including the opportunity for price improvement), access to reliable market data, availability of efficient automated transaction processing and reduced execution costs through price concessions from the market centers. The Customer further understands that certain of the exchanges or market centers may execute orders at prices superior to the publicly quoted market in accordance with their rules or practices and that while a customer may specify that an order be directed to a particular market center for execution, the order-routing policies, taking into consideration all of the factors listed above, are designed to result in favorable transaction processing for customers. The nature and source of any payments or credits received by the Broker in connection with any specific transactions will be furnished upon written request.

23. Fees and Charges.

We do not currently charge fees, such as commissions, mark-ups or otherwise, on Customer Account transactions. In the event we do implement trade-based fees, we will make available on the Platform or provide you with prior written notice of an amendment to this Customer Agreement per Section 28(F) below. The Customer understands that there may be fees and charges levied by RQD and/or third-parties, such as issuers or managers of ETFs, for executing buy and sell orders and for other services provided under this Customer Agreement. The Customer also agrees it is responsible for and will pay any applicable taxes, duties and fees, including any interest and penalties with respect thereto, which may be assessed under present or future laws in connection with the Customer Account. Customer is responsible for reporting all proceeds of sale transactions, dividends paid, or other amounts in the Customer Account to the Internal Revenue Service in accordance with applicable law. The Customer also agrees to pay such expenses incurred by the Broker in connection with collection of any unpaid balance due on the Customer Accounts including attorney's fees allowed by law.

24. Electronic Delivery of Trade and Account Information; Notice.

All communications, notices, legal disclosures, and other materials related to the Customer Account or the Customer Agreement, including account statements, trade confirmations, notices, disclosures, regulatory communications and other information, documents, data and records regarding the Customer Account (the "Communications"), or an alert that any such Communication has been posted to the secure section of the Platform, and is available for viewing, may be sent to the Customer at the mailing address for the Customer Account or the e-mail address that provided to the Broker in the Customer Account application, Investor Profile or from the Customer Financial Institution (to either e-mail address in the case of joint accounts where each account holder has given an e-mail address; notice to both e-mail addresses is not required) or at such other address as the Customer may hereafter give the Broker in writing or by e-mail at least ten (10) calendar days prior to delivery, and all communications so sent, whether in writing or otherwise, shall be deemed given to the Customer personally, whether actually received or not.

25. Pre-Dispute Arbitration.

- A. This Customer Agreement contains a pre-dispute arbitration clause. By signing this Customer Agreement and agreeing to this pre-dispute arbitration agreement, the parties agree as follows:
- (1) All parties to this Customer Agreement are giving up the right to sue each other in court, including the right to a trial by jury, except as provided by the rules of the arbitration forum in which a claim is filed.
 - (2) Arbitration awards are generally final and binding; a party's ability to have a court reverse or modify an arbitration award is very limited.
 - (3) The ability of the parties to obtain documents, witness statements and other discovery is generally more limited in arbitration than in court proceedings.
 - (4) The arbitrators do not have to explain the reason(s) for their award unless, in an eligible case, a joint request for an explained decision has been submitted by all parties to the panel at least 20 days prior to the first scheduled hearing date.
 - (5) The panel of arbitrators will typically include a minority of arbitrators who were or are affiliated with the securities industry.
 - (6) The rules of some arbitration forums may impose time limits for bringing a claim in arbitration. In some cases, a claim that is ineligible for arbitration may be brought in court.
 - (7) The rules of the arbitration forum in which the claim is filed, and any amendments thereto, shall be incorporated into this Customer Agreement.
- B. Any controversy or claim arising out of or relating to this Customer Agreement, any other agreement between the Customer and the Broker, any Account(s) established hereunder, any transaction therein, shall be settled by arbitration in accordance with the rules of FINRA Dispute Resolution, Inc. ("FINRA DR").
- C. This agreement to arbitrate constitutes a waiver of the right to seek a judicial forum unless such a waiver would be void under the federal securities laws. If the Customer is a foreign national, non-resident alien, or if the Customer does not reside in the United States, then the Customer agrees to waive the right to file an action against the Broker in any foreign venue.
- D. No person shall bring a putative or certified class action to arbitration, nor seek to enforce any pre-dispute arbitration agreement against any person who has initiated in court a putative class action; or who is a member of a putative class who has not opted out of the class with respect to any claims encompassed by the putative class action until: (1) the class certification is denied; or (2) the class is decertified; or (3) the customer is excluded from the class by the court. Such forbearance to enforce an agreement to arbitrate shall not constitute a waiver of any rights under this Customer Agreement except to the extent stated herein.

26. Electronic Signatures; Modifications to the Customer Agreement.

The Customer agrees to transact business with the Broker electronically. Your clicks constitute your electronic signature. By electronically signing an application for an Account, the Customer acknowledges and agrees that such electronic signature is valid evidence of the Customer's consent to be legally bound by this Customer Agreement and such subsequent terms as may govern the use of the Broker's services. The use of an electronic version of any document fully satisfies any requirement that the document be provided to the Customer in writing. The Customer accepts notice by electronic means as reasonable and proper notice, for the purpose of any and all laws, rules, and regulations. The Customer acknowledges and agrees that the Broker may amend this Customer Agreement from time to time per Section 28(F) and the Customer agrees to consult the Platform from time to time for the most up-to-date Customer Agreement. The electronically stored copy of this Customer Agreement is considered to be the true, complete, valid, authentic, and enforceable record of the Customer Agreement, admissible in judicial or administrative proceedings to the same extent as if the documents and records were originally generated and maintained in printed form. The Customer agrees to not contest the admissibility or enforceability of the Broker's electronically stored copy of the Customer Agreement.

27. Consent to Electronic Delivery of Documents.

- A. Consent. By agreeing to electronic delivery, the Customer is giving informed consent to electronic delivery of all Customer Account Documents, as defined below. "Account Documents" include notices, disclosures, current and future account statements, regulatory communications (such as prospectuses, proxy solicitations, and privacy notices), trade confirmations, tax-related documents, and any other information, documents, data, and records regarding the Customer Account, this Customer Agreement (including amendments to this Customer Agreement), and the services delivered or provided to the Customer by the Broker, the issuers of the securities or other property in which the Customer invests, and any other parties. The Customer agrees that the Customer can access, view, download, save, and print any Account Documents received via electronic delivery for the Customer's records.
- B. Electronic Delivery System. The Customer acknowledges that the Broker's primary methods of communication with the Customer include (A) posting information on the Platform, (B) providing information via the Platform, (C) sending email(s) to the Customer's email address of record, and, to the extent required by law, (D) providing the Customer with notice(s) that will direct the Customer to the Platform where information can be read and printed. Unless otherwise required by law, the Broker reserves the right to post Account Documents on the Platform without providing notice to the Customer. Further, the Broker reserves the right to send Account Documents to the Customer's postal or email address of record, or via the Platform. The Customer agrees that all Account Documents provided to the Customer in any of the foregoing manner is considered delivered to the Customer personally when sent or posted by the Broker, whether the Customer receives it or not.

All e-mail notifications regarding Account Documents will be sent to the Customer's e-mail address of record. The Customer agrees to maintain the e-mail address provided to the Broker until the Customer provides the Broker with a new one. The Customer understands that e-mail messages may fail to transmit promptly or properly, including being delivered to SPAM folders. The Customer further understands that it is their sole responsibility to ensure that any emails from the Broker or its Affiliates are not marked as SPAM. Regardless of whether or not the Customer receives an e-mail notification, the Customer agrees to check the Platform regularly to avoid missing any information, including time-sensitive or otherwise important communication.
