Item 2: Relationships and Services

What investment services and advice can you provide me?

CDS1 offers brokerage services to retail investors. Our primary business is providing retail customers with brokerage accounts where they can place orders to buy and sell stocks and exchange-traded funds (“ETFs”). We offer small-, mid-, and large-cap equity stocks and ETFs. CDS1’s typical customer is a client of a depository institution, who provides its clients with access to CDS1’s brokerage offering. All securities offered by CDS1 are recommended to customers by AdvisiFi LLC, an SEC-registered investment adviser.

CDS1 is an introducing broker-dealer, which means funds and securities are held by a third-party custodian and clearing firm, RQD* Clearing, LLC (“RQD”). RQD is responsible for servicing customer accounts by executing, clearing, and settling trades, preparing and distributing account statements and trade confirmations. All securities recommended or available for trading on our platform, are supported by RQD.

CDS1 does not:

- Provide recommendations or solicit transactions;
- Have brokerage account minimums;
- Provide account or investment monitoring services; or
- Limit its securities offering to proprietary investment products.

CONVERSATION STARTERS. Ask your financial professional these questions to learn more:

- Given my financial situation, should I choose a brokerage service? Why or why not?
- How will you choose investments to recommend to me?
- What is your relevant experience, including your licenses, education, and other qualifications? What do these qualifications mean?

Item 3: Fees, Costs, Conflicts and Standard of Conduct

CONVERSATION STARTER

- Help me understand how these fees and costs might affect my investments. If I give you $10,000 to invest, how much will go to fees and costs, and how much will be invested for me?

What fees will I pay?

We do not charge commissions on trades. However, you may incur charges imposed by RQD and other third parties. These include transfer fees, administrative fees and other fees and taxes on brokerage accounts and securities transactions. These fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. If you choose to use additional services, such as wire transfers or ACATS, those services are charged at the then prevailing rate.

You will pay fees and costs whether you make or lose money on your investments. Fees and costs will reduce any amount of money you make on your investments over time. Please make sure you understand what fees and costs you are paying.

1. What are your legal obligations to me when providing recommendations? How else does your firm make money and what conflicts of interest do you have?

We do not provide recommendations; at the same time, the way we make money may create some conflicts with your interests. You should understand and ask us about these conflicts because they can affect the services we provide you. For example, the Firm may receive payment for order flow or other compensation derived from customer trading activities, which could be perceived as a conflict of interest.

Payments and compensation arrangements to the Firm often reduce or eliminate additional pass-thru executions charges to our customers. Any reductions in fees or costs will benefit customers' long-term rate of return. For further information concerning potential conflicts of interest or any concerns about any representative of the Firm, please contact Richard Brewster, Director of Compliance at 646-389-4240.
